Round Robin ---- ---- ---- ---- ---- ----

Attending the first elegant Shadow Mountain Gourmet Society Dinner, which was Viennese Night par excellence, were the Charles Larabees, Ralph Ballous, Emmett Connors, Harold Dahlbergs, Edwin Hills, Rubin Bucks, Kay Olesens, Frank Snyders, Edwin Morgans, Dr. and Mrs. Harold Jensen and the Arthur Angels. The next festive evening of Wining and Dining is sceduled for the eighth of March. Also looking forward to this second gastronomical soiree are the J. F. O'Connors, Don Hetlands, Gwin Hicks and Monte Wenck.

That sooooo dreaded day, FRIDAY THE THIRTEENTH, was a perfectly lovely day in Palm Desert where SMCC had the pleasure of welcoming such an attractive group from the Montecito Tennis Club. During the Hospitality Hour held in the Manzanita Lounge on Saturday night, Magda Rurac introduced Mr .and Mrs. Arch Delmarsh, and Mrs. Ted Phoenix, the Howard Eberts, Kit Delmarsh (who was celebrating his twenty third birthday), Hilbert Lee and the

ly Speaking

Henrys. We are looking forward to another visit from the "Santa Barbara Bunch" whenever they can make it!

The Celebrity Brunch and Radio Broadcast (KGOL) held each Sunday in the Manzanita Room and Lounge, has really brought out the crowd — that's where they get the JAM in Jam Session — always wondered about that . . . . anyhooo, the rolicking throng has been treated to the sound of music, "fantabulous" entertainment and the sight of such Celebrated Stars of Opera, "Telly", and Movie fame as diminutive Lily Pons, Adam (Bat-Man) West, Award winning Newscaster Jerry Dunphy, who (with his charming wife Mary celebrated their twenty third wedding Anniversary with us), the Mark Millers, (he is the male lead in the series "Please Don't Eat the Daisies") and his pretty wife, Bea, is with Life Magazine and last but not least, "Dodo" Hurtt — who by now is thought of as the SMCC Mascot — This Gaily colored feathered friend from the Amazon has brightened our lives with his impromptu harmonistic ability as he joins the Stars in song and merriment. Thus far "Dodo" has "assisted" the talented pianist Steve Johnson, piano stylist and Chanteuse Gwen Bari, accompanied by that "gal with the Drums" Sylvia Dryer, June Snow, Alzora Carter ,the Norris Trio, Gordon Ayres, Producer-Director M.C. Larry Young, and the well known vocalists George Allardice and Don Kimsey, Marco and the Chuck Travis Band.

Good to see the Sam Grays and their guests the Wendell Buttreys, Marge Pohl, Dr. Robert White, the George Andersons, Ron Fletcher, Lou Stewart, Gwen Steinbeck, the Jack Langleys, Art Letherbys, Jane Pelgram, Tom Angle, the Nick Carters, Art Sanders, Vic Lobue, Jean Weaver, Lois Healy, Aloys Heyens, Magie Roby and many many more . . . SOMETHING NEW HAS BEEN ADDED TO THESE GREAT PARTIES — WE ARE PRESENTING A WEEKLY INFORMAL FASHION SHOW DURING THE BRUNCH!!

It was a bouncing Tennis Ball that the Shadow Mountain Country Club held in honor of that little but mighty Tennis Great, Mary K. Browne. The Manzanita Room was beautifully decorated by the Don Nielsons, who combined their talents to make those very amusing and clever center pieces of tennis players in all sorts of poses, the tennis ball faces that were hung about and the crossed rackets adorning the beams overhead.

Madeline also donated a lovely original floral painting which was won by lucky Sam and Opie Gray. The many hours of hard work by the Nielsons contributed much to the success of the affair. Thanks also to Joyce Myll. It was she, who by pen and telephone, sent forth the invitations.

The presence of the jolly group from the Balboa Bay Club made this party complete. Amongst those present were Alice Marble, Ginny and Ed Smith, Cliff and Marian Henderson, The Charles Gibbs, the Deane Tummels, Rollie Landers, Gloria Greer, Doug Brown, Edith Desilets, Margaret Roby, the Ted Pearsons, the Leo Priests, the Jerry Dunphys, Keith Burchams, Bob Stewarts, Dr. Aloys Heyens, Joe Regorrahs, Bob Salms, Natt McDougall Jrs., James Swinnertons, the Sam Grays with their guests the Wendell Buttreys, Eve and John Hurtt, Jane Pelgram, Tom Angle, the Larry Youngs et all . . . . . .

On January twenty first the SMCC celebrated it's Eighteenth Anniversary. Founder-Builder Clifford W. Henderson was on deck with his lovely wife, Marian, and they were asked to "do the honors" when Maitre 'D Tony wheeled out the huge Birthday cake.

Seated at the Henderson table were Marian's son, Al Scott, with his recent bride, Ann, and the Braven Dyers. Genial Larry Young emceed the affair and one of the club favorites, Don Kimsey treated the celebrating members with his great songs. It was so pleasant to see the Bill Seals, Gordon Dolans, Arthur Millers, Arthur Sanders, Charles Millikens, John Iveys, Cal McIntoshes, George Odiornes with Betsy and Bill Butterfield (who were celebrating their second wedding anniversary), the John Hurtts, Inez Wall, Nick Carters, Clif Mylls, Don Nielsons, Aloys Heyens and so many more . . . . . .

HISTORY OF THE SHADOW MOUNTAIN PALETTE CLUB

HOW WE STARTED AND WHEN! AND HOW!

by Irene Fenton

One day while Thirza Schenk was Social Directress of the Shadow Mountain Club, the date was February 8, 1961, an employee, Evelyn Chevoor, came in with two paintings she had just finished with our "Wayside Artist" Fred Chisnall. Thirza said to Evelyn, "let me put them on display and see how many of our members are interested in Art" . . . "maybe others paint here" . . . so Evelyn agreed and Thirza sat them on a table.

At the time, the Shadow Mountain Club did not have a party of the month scheduled for March. So Thirza called Irene Fenton and said, "do you think we could get up an artist's Ball for next month (March)?" So Irene suggested we start asking the members for paintings of their own work. To our amazement, we received 33 lovely paintings from members . . . this was our first exhibit at our first Artist's Ball, March 24, 1961 (Friday evening).

On Wednesday, two days before the ball, Irene had 50 applications printed to see if anyone that evening would be interested in joining a club, fees to be $5 . . . Adolph Slechta gave us the first $5 for his wife and so the club began.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Penny were the second donors and members, with a check for $100. Mr. and Mrs. Hoeptner (Lydia), Hazel Sargeant, and many others were also doners. The exhibit and ball were such a success we knew we must go forward and organize.

May 12, 1961, we called a meeting, organized and elected officers.

Thirza Schenk and Irene Fenton were the co-founders. Irene Fenton was elected to serve as the first president; Harriet Lake, vice-president; Lucille Bertrand, recording secretary; Dorothy Dietz, treasurer; Publicity, Thirza Schenk; Membership, Harriet Clandening and Hazel Thronson; Ways and Means, Madeline Neilson; Harriet Clandening also served as reservation clerk; Evelyn Chevoor, hospitality, 'tho she never attended a meeting.

The fourth of each month was set down as the time to meet, and so we were off to a good start.

NET RAMBLINGS

By George F. Anderson

The annual MIXED DOUBLES TENNIS CHAMPIONSHIP was played over the Lincoln Day week-end and drew a record number of entries. Included in the 24 teams playing, 11 of them were a husband-wife duo, plus a sprinkling of brother-sister, and parent-child.

CLIF and JOYCE MYLL barely managed to keep their title after a close 'squeak' in the semi-finals against Ross Patten and Ann McDougall.

The finals drew a capacity gallery of members and vacationers when the Mylls took the court against George Anderson and "Bill" (Mrs. Edgerton) Scott, who had created a mild upset when they edged out Stan and Mary Chambers in the round of eight. Anderson and Scott put up a 2½ hour battle against the more powerful team, finally succumbing 5-7, 8-6, 6-3. The losers had two match points but the winning one did not materialize.

Credit goes to Magda Rurac, club professional, for a smooth running event — also to the players for their promptness — not a soul was late!

Men's Doubles Title

New champions were crowned in the MEN'S DOUBLES, when Jay Paulson and Charles Gibbs overcame Clif Myll and George Anderson in the finals, 6-4, 6-4. Palm Desertites have watched the development of young Jay with interest — he is now third ranking in the junior division in Southern California. With the correcting of a couple of 'hitches' he should be on the national scene within the next two years.

Tennis Ball

The party for MARY K. BROWNE, one of the all time greats in the tennis firmament, was a happy affair. Mary K. was the U.S. singles and doubles champion in 1912, '13, '14, in addition to a long list of other titles. She was admitted to the TENNIS HALL OF FAME in 1957. A life-long honorary membership in the club was presented to her. A group of 30 players from the BALBOA BAY CLUB enjoyed the festivities.

More tournaments coming up — the annual MENS and WOMENS singles for the club championship.

SEE YOU ON THE COURTS!

PEPSI SET

With JANE PELGRAM

The "big sound" slipped away from the vintage years of big band and became part of your Shadow Mountain Club's Poolside Bistro fun when THE HU-MANS made an important scene out of the teeners' dinner dance . . . with Jack Schooley, Bob Adelman and Chuck Hamilton bouncing great rythm, bass and lead guitar chords off the walls, ceilings tables and everything else in sight for as cool a bunch of SMCC gals and guys as ever got out of bathing gear and into fab rags. Mod was it, but pretty, with satin, pastels, scoops, way-out hair do's and paper mache big, big, big . . . on the girls. No grannies or levis for party night!

And isn't that HU-MANS' nice lead singer Mike Petersen's (he's something) little sister Christine something else again?

Among the stompers bugalooping, skating and generally going all out were Sheri Wenck with John Lyman, Kris Peterson with Joe Pronopis and Carol Shelly with Craig Davis. Among the group who headed for Linda Satterfield's slumber party later, were Misses Cindy Anderson, Terry Harris, Karen Petrie, Anita Sorenson, Sue Richardson, Laurinda Hancock, Carol Nilson, Paula Creager, Janice Foster, Diane Hartley and Candy Swan. The boys who came to the dance with them, (and how about that LONDON look that was everywhere!) found Adam Riley, Brian Anderson, Jay McNeilly, Mickey Dudley, Greg Richardson, Greg Jarrett, Ronnie Kirkpatrick, Montie Montellano, Matt Handy and Cody Swain digging the HU-MANS. Our last look at this rock-out before bugging out for Mother Fletcher — oops! sorry about the contagious talk we picked up — we mean before going home, saw Madeline Richter listening to the new sound! Even Maitre D' Tony,down to superintend space-arranging for dancers, was digging in like a real looner! (YOU know a looner is a swinger, only better!)

Great credit for this groovey teeners' Coub bash goes to Club Cellar Manager Brownell Bradstreet and his wife, whose own two pretty blonde daughters made the scene, What with even nicer spring nights coming up this could be THE fab, fave, desert-style fun spot of the Pepsi-set! So if-the 52 of you who made the night scene want another blast-off that's right this and right that, put the word in early! Tell the Bradstreets you're ready for more.

The big Shadow Mt. pool has come back into its own these Sundays with the teeners picking up leaked music from the Celeb Brunch upstairs where their folks hold forth, picking around on their own guitars, or listening to the real sound on KFWB or KRLA. And if you show up with a Ouiji board one of these Sundays no one will think you're out of your tree . . . they'll just know that through the listening posts came the word from La Jolla, Redondo or Balboa that lots of groups are getting hung up on the phantom machine along with a madness for plaid pants, shaved heads and any size Maltese crosses.
